Dear Praying Friends,

Thursday morning, I had begun learning a computer program-- Indesign in order to edit a booklet that we have been given to publish in Chinese. Thursday evening, another missionary helped me learn new ways to manage our website lutheranchinese.org.

Graphic design in the morning, and web design in the evening—my brain was on overload! I was feeling my age—I slept soundly for more than 12 hours that night. A steep learning curve!

Rev. Dr. Mike Paul, and I the first day we were working with Indesign by Adobe.

Additionally, I've been checking another book translation for accuracy—Getting into the Theology of Concord by Robert Preus. Also, I interpreted for our Asia Regional Director at the seminary board meeting this month.

Mary has finished chemo, and will soon have surgery. Please continue to hold this dear teacher in your prayers.

I went back to the village in Yunlin county. I hope to visit those new friends more, and for opportunities to share with them.

This is the temple nearest the home of my new friends in the village.

My friend Cathy and I pray daily for many friends and family members, as well as for God's grace and protection of His church throughout the world.

I am thankful for your prayers for God's work in Taiwan, and for these specific friends, as well as for your continual financial support. You are a constant blessing to me, and I thank God for you!

Praise Reports:

- For opportunities to learn new things, to help prepare Lutheran web-based and print resources.
- For YOU—faithful supporters, and for your ongoing pledges, prayers and contributions.

Prayer Requests:

- For Mary's physical and spiritual healing, and for Mrs. Lee, and Cathy's mom, brother and his family, that their hearts will be opened to saving faith.
- For improved Chinese, especially increased reading vocabulary, so that I can be more effective in the translation and editing work that I am called to do.
- For God to bless all of my supporters for the blessing you all are.
