The Gift of Hospitality

September 2018

In two of the three pastoral epistles, Paul charges Timothy and Titus to be hospitable:

"Now the overseer must be above reproach, the husband of but one wife, temperate, self-controlled, respectable, hospitable, able to teach..." I Timothy 3:2,3a

"[The overseer] must be hospitable, one who loves what is good, who is self-controlled, upright, holy, and disciplined." Titus 1:8

When "determining your Spiritual Gifts" was the Bible Study rage among Christians a few decades ago, a staff member told me that I had the gift of hospitality: "You make people feel at home here." While I hadn't necessarily considered it from that perspective, isn't that what we are all called to do? Whether it is in our homes or here at King of Kings, we all do our best to make people feel at home, to be comfortable in our presence.

On Sunday morning (or the first week of school) some people new to us may seem like extroverts: they work the crowd, they shake hands and introduce themselves. Others may be more introverted (another word for Lutheran!): they may not speak until they are spoken to! While we have many members who faithfully volunteer to greet at our worship services, the welcome belongs to all of us. There are King of Kings members who have told me who greeted them on their first Sunday here. That's impressive!

If you are unsure as to what to say, the safest bet is, "I don't believe we've met" and then introduce yourself. Even if you have met before, ask their name again. It's better to do that than to fake it. Studies have shown that people would rather have you ask again – it shows you are interested in them.

A pastor of a small country parish in western Minnesota had worked for years trying to get a family to return to church. When they finally returned, a member (who thought he was being funny) said, "I suppose you would like to sign the guest book!" I think it would have been a lot better to have said, "It is really great to see you here today!"

A few weeks ago, Dan and Laurie Shepard were visiting here from Georgia. Laurie had been a church secretary for me many years ago. While we keep in contact via email, we hadn't seen each other in years. They showed up at 8:30 unannounced and I thought to myself, "Isn't this what heaven is going to be like? A reunion of the saints, brothers in sisters in Christ we haven't seen for years!"

Every Sunday, these reunions take place at King of Kings. After five years, I have decided that we are the Grand Central Station of the Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod: everyone seems to pass through here at least once! Greet those you know, but make a special point to greet those you haven't met. They may turn out to be a dear brother or sister in Christ in the years to come!

Pastor Steven Bielenberg*

From the Window View of Pastor Lee

Labor Day pays tribute to the contributions and achievements of American workers, and Labor Day 2018 occurs on Monday, September 3 (it's traditionally observed on the first Monday in September). It was created by the labor movement in the late 19th century and became a federal holiday in 1894. Labor Day also symbolizes the end of summer for many Americans, and is celebrated with parties, parades and athletic events. But after Labor Day, we all return back to work again; sad that summer is finally over.

For Christians, when is our Labor Day? Paul tells us in 2 Timothy 4:7-8 (NIV) "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing."

As long as we are on this side of heaven, we will work tirelessly 24/7/365 to proclaim the Gospel because that is what we're called to do. We are called to love. Do you truly understand what that means? We try but we will never fully understand until our final labor day when we are with God in eternity. We look forward to that day, until then we Labor on. Working conditions is always good with the Lord.

Yours in Christ,

Pastor Vue Lee

FOSTER THE LOVE MN

Last year we were blessed with the opportunity to share God's love by providing socks to foster children. Our church has the opportunity to, once again, partner with nine other churches in Ramsey County to make placement bags for kids entering foster care—right here in our community. Our church has chosen to provide a hundred toothbrushes and toothpastes. Since we will be making placement bags for kids in a variety of ages/genders, we will need to gather 25 older girl and 25 older boy toothbrushes, along with 25 kid-sized girl and 25 kid-sized boy toothbrushes. Our hope is to show our county's kids, foster parents, and social workers that the Church has not forgotten them! Please drop them off in the office for Pastor Lee.

Stewardship Minute Message

THE PEOPLE IN MACEDONIA FIRST GAVE THEMSELVES TO THE LORD AND THEN THEY GAVE JOYFULLY AND GENEROUSLY.

“Out of the most severe trial, their overflowing joy
and their extreme poverty welled up in rich generosity”
(2 Corinthians 8:2).

Overflowing Joy

The thought of anything overflowing is normally seen in a negative light. When we fill containers to their limit and beyond, the contents will pour out of the container resulting in a mess to clean up. We've all experienced putting too much water, soda, or milk in a glass causing an overflow. However, in a spiritual sense, an overflow is what we want. When we are filled with God's love and joy, His love and joy overflow from us to others. As God continues to fill us, we have more to share with our family, friends, and all people.

An example of being filled to overflowing is found in the Apostle Paul's letter to the church in Corinth. In the eighth chapter of 2 Corinthians, Paul encouraged the people in Corinth to give generously to the needy brothers and sisters in Christ in Jerusalem. To encourage the Corinthian people to give generously, Paul referenced the generosity of the people in Macedonia, who were filled to overflowing with an abundance of joy. Paul wrote, “We want you to know brothers, about the grace of God that has been given among the churches of Macedonia, for in a severe test of affliction, their abundance of joy and their extreme poverty on their part have overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part” (2 Corinthians 8:1-2). In these verses, we find four significant thoughts. There is severe affliction and extreme poverty and in the midst of these troubles, we find an abundance of joy that is overflowing in generosity. The joy of the Macedonians flourished even with “severe test of affliction” and “extreme poverty.”

The joy of the Macedonians was in Jesus. They were filled with joy because they experienced Jesus' love. They knew that because of their faith they were forgiven. Their hope and security were in Jesus, and they wanted to share their blessings with others. Having been filled by God, they had much to share. Their joy could not be contained. Their joy grew and became complete as they shared their joy in Jesus with others as they gave their money “beyond their means” (2 Corinthians 8:3).

Where and in what you and I find joy will determine how we view and use the blessings that we have. If our joy is in the things of the world, we will want to hold onto and keep enjoying what we have for ourselves. When our joy is in material things, we become protective and possessive of them. If our joy is in Jesus, as was the Macedonians, our joy will prompt us to want to share our blessings. We want others to have the joy that we have in Jesus.

May God fill each of us with His joy and may He bless us as we share that joy with others.
